Release 2018

Category five hurricanes and tornadoes. Earthquakes that rock the Richter Scale at 6 and above. Floods. Pandemics. Chemical and terrorist attacks.

Things happen, so you better be prepared to get out town—fast. To do so, you need a method of transportation you can rely on. That's where we come in.

In Bug Out, a 132-page special issue from Engaged Media, readers will learn how to master the art of customizing their own truck so they have the ultimate survival vehicle. Plus, our experts have selected the top bug-out vehicles known to man. In addition to stories on alternative fuel, water filtration and product tests, the issue will feature buyer's guides packed with must-have product, including generators, gear and water filtration devices that will get anyone through the worst-case scenarios.

The ultimate survival vehicle. Create it or buy it. Either way, be ready.
